

Press Release

नेपाली राजदूतावास
Embassy of Nepal
Berlin, Germany

His Excellency Ram Kaji Khadka, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Nepal to the Slovak Republic presented his 'Letters of Credence' to Her Excellency Zuzana Čaputová, President of the Slovak Republic amidst a special ceremony held at the Presidential Palace in Bratislava today as the Non-Resident Ambassador of Nepal having his residence in Berlin, Germany.

Prior to the presentation of the originals of his 'Letters of Credence' to Her Excellency the President, Ambassador Khadka handed over the copy of his 'Letters of Credence' to the Deputy Director of the Diplomatic Protocol at the Slovak Foreign Ministry who received it on behalf of the Director. During the conversation with her, the Ambassador took the opportunity to share some thoughts on Nepal-Slovakia bilateral relations.

During the meeting, the Ambassador also conveyed through the Deputy Director the message of warm greetings and best wishes from the Rt. Hon. President Mrs. Bidya Devi Bhandari and the Rt. Hon. Prime Minister Mr. Sher Bahadur Deuba for the good health and happiness of Her Excellency the President and for the continued progress, prosperity, and wellbeing of the people the Slovak Republic.

Altogether, eight Non-Resident Ambassadors from various capitals were present on the occasion. High level officials of the Slovak Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Office of the President were also present on the occasion.

His Excellency Mr. Khadka is scheduled to have a meeting with the Director of Asia, Pacific and the Latin America Department of the Slovak Foreign Ministry tomorrow and is scheduled to return to Berlin day after tomorrow following his meeting with the President of the Chambers of Commerce and Industries of the Slovak Republic and his team, and the Nepali community in Bratislava.

April 11, 2022
Embassy of Nepal
Berlin

